Mr Harris

Dear Sir

2.26.78

I have Examined into the Case You mention — and am of the opinion that the child died from want of proper attendance any thing else — subject from the Surroundings. The Parents of the child had a Doctor O'Reilly in attendance and he pronounced the Case to be one of Brain trouble. From facts gathered from the Parents I would make out a Certificate that it died of "Meningitis" or Inflamation of Brain. Either would suit the Case. I called to see Dr O'Reilly but he was not home.

Respectfully
